Committee Reports

Finance Committee Report – We were notified that the Martin Janssen family donated $100,000.00 to be put in the perpetual scholarship fund. We were also informed that the estate of Celine Kelly that ½ of her estate will be donated to the Foundation with ½ going to St. Judes. Also will be put in perpetual scholarships.

Scholarship/Classroom Grant Committee Report – The committee reported that the Raptor presentation will happen, but will be later in the year. Plans are in the works to possibly have the Trivia Night at the Family Affair party room on February 20th.

Public Relations/Communications Committee Report – The next project is the Report to the School Board. It will be presented to the school board on October 12, 2026.

Fund Raising Committee Report –50-59 raffles are coming up in November. Proceeds will go to the scholarship fund.

FAC Events Committee Report - Only about 190 tickets have been sold for the Bluffet show. Discussed using an outside agency to promote sales at the FAC. The consensus of the group was for Tom Wetzel to continue research on the project.

Fine Arts Center Report –Maintenance has been done on the new lighting console. Had to replace some units. Outreach: Physics at the high school. Motion was made by Tom Wetzel, seconded by Marcia Klicko to give a $500.00 donation to keep the Physics show going. The motion was carried unanimously,

A-F School District Report – Things are going well at the high school according the Principal Kevin Moore.

Old Business – None

New Business – None

Any Other Business to Come before the Board – None

Meeting was adjourned at 6:00 pm.
